

SDG16: PEACE, JUSTICE AND STRONG INSTITUTIONS

The university promotes peaceful and inclusive societies for sustainable development, provides access to justice for all and builds effective, responsible and inclusive cultures in all university centres.

We are devoted to fostering peaceful and just societies over a wide range of study programmes. For example, undergraduate Law students take units in human rights and counter-terrorism legislation, while master's and Ph.D. students can become international lawyers through our advanced course in Public International Law. Furthermore, the deanship of Student Affairs created avenues for exploration such as an invitation to 'Lawyers Without Borders' and a partnership with the German Friedrich Ebert Foundation that allows different students to participate in informative training sessions. https://www.lwbjo.org/View_ArticleAr.aspx?type=2&ID=10376.

Likewise, our university achieves the teaching goal of barrier-free education for students with special education needs. The university takes measures to fight corruption and combat bribery brought about by organised crime, corruption and bribery. The university is also transparent in publishing its financial data.

Finally, The World Islamic Sciences and Education University contribute to development of the (SDG16) 'PEACE, JUSTICE AND STRONG INSTITUTIONS' by publishing one publications under this (SDG16). Zamanan, et al. (2020). Publishing the paper entitled "The influence of HRM practices and employees' satisfaction on intention to leave".

The World Islamic Sciences and Education University

Email: Deewan.president@wise.edu.jo

Tel: 00962-5600230

Website: www.wise.edu.jo

P.O. Box 11947 Amman- 11947 Jordan