SDG11: SUSTAINABLE CITIES AND COMMUNITIES

The facilities offered by the university such as the buildings are potential cultural assets is the building of the College of Islamic Art and Architecture. Our university is free to enter. It is representative of a specific period of development, with special architectural types, styles, or structural features.

11 SUSTAINABLE CITIES AND COMMUNITIES

Based on the principle of serving society and sharing resources, our library is open to the public for free throughout the year.

Our university as a body provide public access to museums, exhibition spaces / galleries.

Additionally, our university as a body deliver projects to preserve intangible cultural heritage such as local folklore.

The World Islamic Sciences and Education University switched from investments that depend on fossil fuels to renewable energy. Consequently, electric vehicles are used on campus. The university is interested in reducing energy consumption even if the entire energy used in the university is from renewable sources.
