

Courses Description

Course Title: English communication skills 99

Credit Hours: 3

Code: 1504099

English Communication Skills 99 is a three-credit hours course for undergraduate students. It aims at providing the students with the basic structures of the language through exposing them to authentic written and oral passages. The overall objective of this course is to expand their vocabulary knowledge.

Course Title: English communication skills 101

Credit Hours: 3

Code: 1504105

English Communication Skills 101 is a three- credit hour course for undergraduate students. It aims at providing the students with the basic structures of the language through exposing them to authentic written and oral passages. The overall objective of this course is to dramatically develop the students' skills in English grammar, listening, speaking, reading and writing and to expand their vocabulary knowledge.